As per the Ref. cited, in addition to the seven skill courses in the present UG curriculum of Single Major Stream Pattern, two Social Development Courses in the Third and Fourth Semester were introduced from the Academic Year 2024-25. The Course introduced in the Third Semester was on Social Emotional Balance based on the UNESCO-MGIEP SEEK & SEL Courses which helps in developing emotional intelligence and resilience, interpersonal skills, and holistic systems-level thinking among learners.

This course is designed in association with the UNESCO-MGIEP SEEK & SEL Courses. The Second Languages Faculty ( Hindi, Telugu and Sanskrit) has to teach this course for all streams i.e. B.A., B.Com., B.Sc., B.B.A and any other. The details of this course are as follows :

1. Syllabus :

a. Consists of Five Units which are :

S.No.	Unit No.	Name of the Unit	Teaching Hours Suggested
1	I	Topics relating to SEEK and SEL	10
2	II	Topics relating to SEEK and SEL	10
3	III	Topics relating to SEEK and SEL	10
4	IV	Topics related to the Second language relating to the Social Development	10
5	V	Topics related to the Second language relating to the Social Development	10
Total Work Load			50

- b. Syllabus for the First, Second and Third Units were as specified by the UNESCO- MGIEP Resource persons.

- c. Syllabus for the Fourth and Fifth Units for various Second Languages is attached as separate Annexures - I, II and III.

2. Workload and Strength :

- a. Workload: 03 hours per week per Ref.cited
b. Teaching should be completely Face to Face as per the time table (preferably in the Virtual Class)
c. Every student must complete the SEEK and SEL Courses in the Online Mode and obtain the Certificate for the first three units
d. The strength of the class can be 60 students and a separate section can be created if the strength exceeds Sixty.

As this is intended to empower the students with Social Emotional Balance Skills and engage the Second language Faculty with purposeful outcomes to make the students emotionally strong, the implementation of this course should be taken seriously. Any deviation in this regard will be viewed seriously.
